Currently the Noblesville Housing Authority, serving Hamilton County, is not accepting applications for the Housing Choice Voucher (HCV) rent assistance program (family based "Section 8"). We only have funding for a maximum of 203 families per month and have very little turnover to issue to new families. You are welcome to check back with our office to see if we are accepting applications for the HCV program. The HCV program can help families pay rent in an apartment, single family home, or manufactured home of their choice following many regulations. The website affordablehousingonline.com has information about open waiting lists with other housing authorities.

For Legal services, contact Neighborhood Christian Legal Clinic located in Indianapolis 317-429-4131. They come to Noblesville regularly to Family Promise of Hamilton County. You must call first or book an appointment online to verify time/location. Visit the website www.nclegalclinic.org/intakes If they are unable to assist contact Indiana Legal Service located in Indianapolis 317-631-9410.

Habitat for Humanity of Greater Indianapolis, serving Hancock, Hamilton, Hendricks & Marion Counties, can also provide assistance to become a homeowner, contact them to apply by calling 317-777-6080 or email homeownership@indyhabitat.org.

For aging services for adults over age 55, please contact Shepherd's Center at 317-674-8777, and CICOA at 317-254-5465.

For Low Income Home Energy Assistance contact Good Samaritan Network at 317-842-2603 or visit <https://www.gsnlive.org/energyassistanceprogram>.
